The Hershey's Mill Security Department would like to remind pedestrians that they should utilize sidewalks, where available. Where sidewalks are unavailable, pedestrians should utilize the shoulder on the left side of the road, facing oncoming traffic, as this allows drivers and pedestrians alike a much better opportunity to see the other approaching. However, keep in mind that Hershey's Mill roadways also have several "blind spots", small rises in the road, curves, and other areas of poor visibility. In these areas, pedestrians should use extra caution and be aware that drivers may have a difficult time seeing them. Just because a pedestrian notices the vehicle coming toward them does not mean that the driver has also seen the pedestrian. Both parties should always use caution when sharing the roadways within Hershey's Mill! Lastly, all people, pedestrians and operators of automobiles, golf carts, bicycles...etc, utilizing Hershey's Mill roadways and walkways are required to abide by the traffic rules and regulations of Hershey's Mill. Thank you!

TECHNOLOGY TIPS

Don Trauger | Kennett

Normally, once all your devices are set up and connected to Wi-Fi, you don't have to go through further connection routines. However, your FIOS TV can provide considerable information in regard to your Wi-Fi connected devices. For example, it

To obtain your Wi-Fi settings, grab your FIOS TV remote then press the Menu button. Navigate to Customer Support and press OK. Next, navigate to Internet and finally My Wireless Network. Press OK after each. You should now be at WI-FI Credentials, so just press OK. Wait for the information screen to load. You will see your SSID and Password displayed. Write them down for convenience.

Another tip for those of you that have the Media Server feature is that all set top boxes are set to turn off after 4 hours if the remote is not used. This is an energy saving feature. If you wish to turn that off or change the hours click Menu then navigate to Settings and click OK. At System, click OK then navigate can provide your Wi-Fi network information, such as the SSID and password. The SSID is simply the name of the Wi-Fi signal being broadcast by your router. This can be very helpful when adding a new Wi-Fi connected device such as a wireless printer, smartphone, a Roku device or any device that requires your SSID and Wi-Fi password. Don't use the label information on the router. This is known to be inaccurate and can be misleading.

Remember, our PC Club meets the third Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m., upstairs in the Ardmore room of the Community Center.

Louise O'Brien | Springton

This month, I would like everyone to get to know our own Hershey's Mill Community TV Station, formerly known as HMCTV, Channel 20. The "Station" was created in 1993 by former resident Milton Brown to inform and entertain the residents. HMCTV is managed by a group of dedicated volunteers and funded by advertising revenues from the Guide and Digest. Located right inside the Main Gate, HMCTV welcomes you to visit our studio and offices. See for yourself where this group of volunteers produces programs of interest for our residents, publishes the Guide and Digest monthly, and publishes the Residents' Directory yearly. We also offer three summer concerts for your entertainment. In addition, we maintain the data base of residents' information and a web site, www.hersheysmill.org.

The growth of revenues from the Guide and Digest has enabled HMCTV to assist the Community Center, Sullivan House, Wood Shop and the Cove to meet the needs of residents who use these facilities. For example, in 2012, we donated an audio system, projector and screen for the Main Hall and a projector and screen for upstairs in the Ardmore room of the Community Center. In 2013, HMCTV donated a very valuable rug to the Sullivan House and blinds were given and installed in the Community Center's Main Hall.

will continue to evaluate how they can assist in the future.

It takes many volunteers to ensure the continued success of HMCTV and future contributions. Please consider

In 2017, HD TV's were provided for the Paoli Room in the Community Center and the Cove. The Cove also received an installation of blinds to help control the glare from the sun in the meeting room. Just recently, HMCTV paid for a TV for the Sullivan House and a new computer for the HM Library along with a donation to purchase large print books. The volunteers at HMCTV are proud of their contributions to the community and

LOCAL HISTORY

Joe Kennedy | Princeton

During the mid-19th century, a new political party rose up to challenge the powerful Democratic Party that had been reshaped by two-term president Andrew Jackson. Although this new party, the Whigs, lasted only from about 1834 to 1856, it had an important influence on American politics both nationally and locally.

Historian Samuel Eliot Morrison wrote that the Whigs were "everyone who was not a Democrat." In fact, the term comes from England and describes a group that opposed the traditional political establishment. The Whig Party stood for a protective tariff, a national bank, internal infrastructure improvement, and state sovereignty in economic and political issues. In this region, particularly in Montgomery County where mills and factories were being built marking the beginning of the American industrial revolution, the party had an appeal to merchant and manufacturing interests. Locally, the Whigs drew strength from the Anti-Masonic Party, which opposed the Masonic Order as a secret threat to free American political institutions. On a national level, the Whigs were led by Henry Clay and Daniel Webster.

Files of the Historical Society of Montgomery County record that the presidential election of 1840 was a big political event locally, with Whig delegations from Montgomery, Chester, Berks, and Delaware Counties rallying at Valley Forge to support the Whig candidate for president, William Henry Harrison and the vice presidential candidate John Tyler. Following a national trend, the local Whig Party ran a noisy campaign featuring parades and rallies that emphasized personalities over campaign issues. Under the slogan "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too!", the Whigs won the White House but captured no local offices. Once again in the presidential election of 1844 the county Whigs rose to the occasion with the new style of campaigning. Henry Clay was the Whig candidate for president. The historical society's files report that Clay Clubs were organized all over the county. Large parades were organized in Norristown, Upper Merion, Whitemarsh and Pottstown, many of which featured either large numbers of oxen or horse teams pulling farm equipments such as threshing machines. The idea was to create a spectacle. But all the energy was of no avail. Clay, who was once quoted as saying, "I'd rather be right than president," was neither.

Despite the setback, the Whigs, at least on one occasion, were able to overcome the local Democratic Party and elected a judge. Reports at the historical society indicate that in 1851 the presiding judge, David Krause, whose district comprised both Bucks and Montgomery Counties, refused to stand for election. Daniel Smyser, a Gettysburg lawyer, was elected because the Democrats split their votes.

During the 1850s, the rise of the anti-immigrant Know-Nothing Party and the new Republican Party took away the strength of the Whigs and their political influence ended.

The library is a pleasant, cool spot for volunteering your ideas and time throughout the warmer months. For example, we invite your thoughts on new book purchases. Please submit your ideas and place them in the box on the round table in the library. New books are purchased and processed monthly and initially displayed around the third Friday of the month.

Our Ambassador Program continues. If you need books selected and brought to you at home, for various reasons, or you would like to be part of this outreach opportunity, please contact Angela Linden.

The upcoming fall book sale offers a number of opportunities to be involved and get to know some more of your neighbors. Displaying books and helping with sales during the event as well as packing remaining books afterwards are just a few of the tasks. Please look for the sign-up sheet in the library if you'd like to help.

As always, the library is staffed with women and men who enjoy volunteering in a place where there's always the latest novel within reach and a puzzle underway. If you promise to keep your voice down, you can almost always get a quick book tip from residents who wander in and out during your shift.

Louise O'Brien | Springton

Michael Rackover of Franklin Village had a photo art showing at the Greyhound Café, Lincoln Center on route 30 during the months of May and June. You have to see this display to appreciate how photos can get elevated to an art form. The photos of the animals were this editor's favorite. MONDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

Lynne Urian | Merrifield

In honor of what would have been the incomparable Barbara Stanwyck's 111th birthday, on Monday, July 16 at 7 p.m. in the upstairs room at the Community Center, Monday Night at the Movies is honored to present one of her best films: "Double Indemnity" (1944). This film comes in at number 29 on the American Film Institute's list of the "100 Best Films, and is considered a classic example of the film noire genre. Stanwyck is brilliant as the heartless woman who seduces a lovelorn insurance salesman, played by Fred MacMurray, into murdering her husband. Things don't go quite as planned however, especially with insurance fraud investigator Edward

G. Robinson. Don't miss the scene with MacMurray and Stanwyck plotting the murder while talking among the canned goods in a 1940's grocery store! If you saw "Double Indemnity" years ago, it's well worth watching again. If you've never seen this classic, don't miss it!

Join us for an enjoyable evening and meet some new HM friends. For additional information, please call Lynne Urian (Merrifield Village) at _____, or email her at _____. Hoping to "see you at the movies"!

educational and social affair. Some folks came away with some unusual plant varieties like Italian parsley, orange tomatoes and Italian basil; everyone left with some new ideas and fully satisfied from a delicious buffet dinner.

COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS RECOGNIZED FOR CUSTOM DEVICES

In March, KenCrest services recognized a group of industrious residents from the Hershey's Mill community for their work on an adaptive design project, creating customized devices for children with disabilities.

Julie Daly, Clinical Coordinator for Infant/Toddler Programs at KenCrest, nominated the group from Hershey's Mill, explaining the devices created by the group have been life-changing for the youngsters who need them.

Because they are made of lightweight composite cardboard material, the devices, such as wheelchair trays or seats, are portable, much less expensive than other medical devices, and may be produced quickly.

TENNIS

Dave Clewell | Robynwood

We are off to a good season of tennis. We reserve two courts on Monday through Friday at 3:30 p.m. and Saturday at 9:30 a.m. If you come, you will play. We shorten the sets and have no ad, so no one has to wait long to get in a game. Remember the upcoming events which include

Labor Day and "The Davis Cup". Sign-up sheets will go up two weeks before each event on the bulletin board located at the tennis courts. You can also call me at . Come on out and have some fun.

BILLIARDS

Activity continues to increase for the HM Men's 8 Ball team with the addition of new members, and Folsom Senior Center joining Hill View Community and Freedom Village as match opponents. The team membership consists of all skill levels from beginners to veteran tournament players, and welcomes anyone interested in playing pocket billiard games. While some of our get-togethers are more social than actually playing pool, there are plenty of opportunities to get in a game or practice with an experienced player.

The Billiard Room is located on the first floor in the Community Center. We are there Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 4-6 p.m., plus some Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon. I can be reached at

BOWLING LEAGUE

John Cvinar | Ulster

The Hershey's Mill bowling league closed out the 2017/2018 season with a rousing competition for first place honors in early April. The league had its awards luncheon on April 3 at the Palace Bowling Alley in Downingtown. Top bowlers and top team performances received special acknowledgement and awards. Plan to join us in October for the start of our new season. Our bowlers are all ages and have a wide range of skills. It's a great way to spend Tuesday mornings with friends and neighbors. Contact Doll Elwell at 610-296-1893 or ddejce@aol.com.

APPLE & MACINTOSH CONNECTION

Carol Campanelli

The fourth Saturday of the month Mac meetings, July 28 and August 25, are held on the second floor at the Community Center from 10 a.m. to noon. Bob Barton, from the Main Line Macintosh Users Group (www.mlmug.org), leads a question and answer session about your iPads, iPhones, laptops, and all Mac-related problems. Coffee, tea, and light refreshments are usually available. These Saturday meetings will return to the Cove in September. Second Saturday Mac meetings will resume at the Community Center in September.

BIKING

Dick Wright | Vassar

Hershey's Mill bikers have had a number of trail and road rides even with the chilly, rainy spring. Our fearless leader, Seth French, returns shortly and we will be having many more group rides and ride-related activities. The best is yet to come. Stay tuned!

Are you a Hershey's Mill Mac user? We still need Mill residents to act as liaisons from the Mac Group to The Mill. Duties include setting up light refreshments at meetings and maintaining contact with the Community Center

Allan Shaffer | Yardley

On Saturday, May 5, the table tennis club held its third interclub competition. Eighteen people participated, dividabout schedule changes. I will continue to attend and help with setup but I am no longer a resident of HM and I feel that it is important to have community support for the expert free advice offered by the Main Line Mac members. Please contact me at carcamp1@comcast.net about your availability.

RECIPES

Like so many, celebrating America this month means we're featuring dishes from places we've lived. We hope you enjoy our three July 4 offerings in this tiny space!

Maytag Blue Stuffed Burger

Yep, the best blue cheese is from Iowa!

2 ounces Maytag blue cheese
2 tablespoons butter

1½ pounds ground chuck/sirloin mix
Sea salt and freshly ground pepper

Mash cheese and butter together, then form 4 disks (½" × 1½"). Refrigerate until very firm. Divide beef into 4 portions, and form a patty around each disk (working the meat as little as possible); season the patties generously. Grill burgers, and serve as any other.

Blue & Beer Mustard

Makes your hotdog or brat special!

1 tablespoon butter

3 cloves garlic, peeled and minced
1 tablespoon freshly ground pepper
12 ounces wheat beer
4 ounces Maytag blue cheese
1 cup whole-grain mustard

Cook garlic in butter until light brown, then add pepper and beer and boil until reduced by half. Whisk in cheese until melted, then remove from heat. Whisk in mustard, and let cool before using.

Wobbly Watermelon

Adults-only Mississippi dessert!

1 large watermelon
2-4 cups Bourbon

Cut 3 plugs along top, then fill with as much Bourbon as it will absorb. Refrigerate and refrigerate for 4 hours.

Club will be closed on Monday, July 2 and open on Wednesday, "the Fourth" until 5 p.m. You will be able to order food until 2:30 p.m.

Seafood Night is Thursday, July 5, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the dining room. Reservations are required.

NOTE - For those who wish to dine at the bar, the bar menu is not available, but you can take part in the seafood buffet or select the soup and sandwich option.

There will be a Wine Tasting featuring J. Lohr wines on Thursday, July 12 from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Various cheeses will be paired with the wines. A listing of the wines and cheeses will be on the website under Social/Dining as the event draws closer. Reservations are required and the cost is $25++ per person.

Ladies' Night Out will be Wednesday, July 18. The featured drink will be a Baybreeze. A crab cake sandwich

Golf Tip

Even though you may carry one or more hybrids in your bag, you may not be getting the most out of them. The main problem I see is improper ball position. Be sure to play the ball more to the middle of your stance like an iron. You need to promote a down and through shape to your golf swing. The hybrid, by definition, looks like a metal wood but has the shaft length of an iron. So to catch the ball on the face, instead of that leading edge, your hands need to lead the clubhead through impact.

Matthew Harvey, PGA

with roasted pepper remoulade will be the featured special.

The winners of the Hat Contest at the Kentucky Derby Party were Anne O'Neill and Valerie Schmidt. As you can see from the photos, a good time was had by all.

We value your feedback and suggestions. Comment Cards are included with your bill when you eat at the Club and are available by the Suggestion Box in the lobby. The Comment Cards are read, discussed and action taken where necessary. To encourage your feedback, a signed and dated Comment Card will be drawn each month and the winner will receive a free drink. Mary Lou Perry will enjoy a free drink as her comment card was drawn for the month of April.

The annual volleyball competition will continue in hopes that the Red Team can finally defeat the Blue Team! BINGO with Hal Deal will also be available for the many Bingo players who attend that night. Look for more information to be posted on the pool bulletin board the second week of July.
